WHO WE ARE

The group at a glance

DPH World has spent ten years building bespoke Greece for leading U.S. luxury travel advisors. That same team, the same standards and the same commercial relationship now extend across Italy and Britain through two specialist houses: Bottega Italia and Mayfair Journeys.

Three destination specialists. One account manager, one contract, one invoice and one duty line — whichever country your client is standing in.

GREECE

DPH World

Islands, archaeology and private sea. Athens, Santorini, Mykonos, Crete and the Peloponnese, run by our founding resident team.

ITALY

Bottega Italia

Craft, table and city. Rome, Florence, Venice, Lake Como and the Amalfi Coast, with artisan and cellar access held in-house.

UNITED KINGDOM

Mayfair Journeys

House, estate and countryside. London, the Cotswolds, Scotland and private-house Britain, arranged with quiet formality.

FULL PROPOSAL

Trade-only. White-label. Your client stays your client.

What you get, every time

One trusted account relationship

A single point of contact across Greece, Italy and Britain — no re-explaining your client, your preferences or your terms.

One central sales and business-development team

Rates, contracting, incentives and trade support handled once, centrally, for the whole group.

Consistent proposal and service standards

The same proposal architecture, response times, documentation and quality thresholds, whichever destination you book.

White-label, advisor-first service

We work in your name and behind your brand, with unbranded documents on request.

Multi-country itinerary coordination

One proposal, one invoice, one operations thread for journeys crossing two or three of our destinations.

One invoice, one commission, one contact

However many countries the journey crosses, you receive one invoice, one commission statement and the same contact from brief to final day.

Dedicated local product and operations teams

Each destination is run by a resident team with its own hoteliers, guides, drivers and access — never a franchised desk abroad.

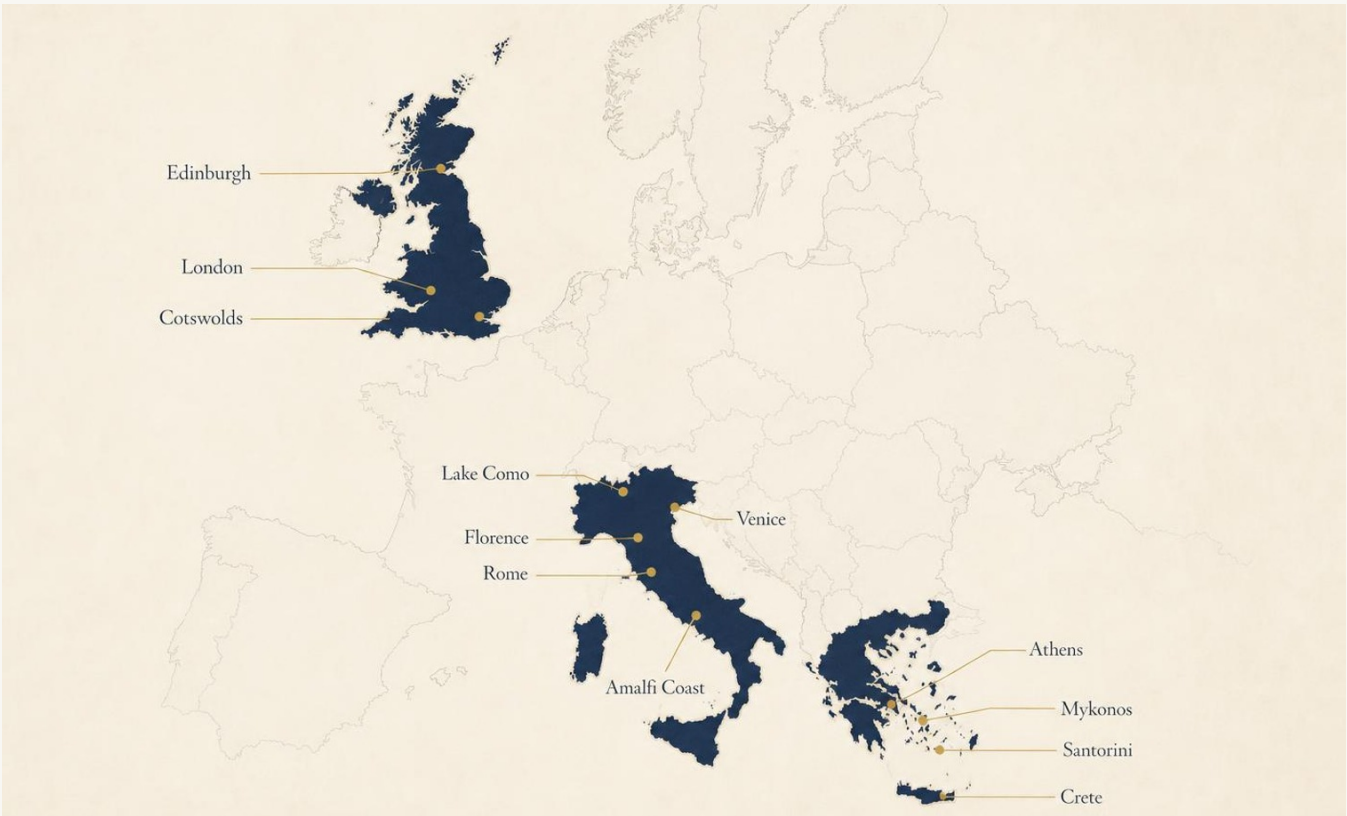

24/7 in-destination assistance

A local duty manager on the ground, reachable at any hour, in every country we operate.

No direct remarketing to your client

Your client stays your client. We never contact, market or sell to them after travel.

Multi-country journeys

One brief, one proposal, one commercial thread. Our teams hand your client between countries without a seam – flights and rail sequencing, cross-border transfers, and a duty manager waiting in the next destination.
